Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Blanchard River Broadcasting (WFIN/WKXA/WBUK Radio, Findlay, OH) had significant loss in business revenue. It was determined by station management a reduction in staff and reassignment of duties needed to be made. During the assessment of all radio station positions, it was decided the work load no longer required a fulltime production director. Therefore, the decision was made to consolidate the production director position with an individual who could also perform a daily radio program on WKXA and WBUK.

The WFIN-WKXA-WBUK production director was terminated on November 30, 2020 due to the reduction in staff and reassignment of duties. It was determined this individual did not have the skills or ability to perform a daily radio program.

No full recruitment campaign was conducted due to the fact the position was filled by an existing staff member who possessed the skills, experience and ability needed for the production director position and who could also perform a daily radio program on WKXA & WBUK.

The WCSI/WKKG/WINN/WWWY Radio Traffic Coordinator/Receptionist resigned her position effective September 11, 2020. A full recruitment campaign was facilitated. No viable candidates were discovered during the recruitment process.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, both White River Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WCSI/WKKG/WINN/WWWY Radio, Columbus, IN) and Blanchard River Broadcasting (WFIN/WKXA/WBUK Radio, Findlay, OH) had significant loss in business revenue. It was determined by station management, a reduction in staff and reassignment of duties needed to be made. It was decided the work load no longer required two fulltime staff members handling traffic for both locations.

During part of COVID-19, most associates worked from home, including both locations' Traffic Coordinator/Receptionists. The former WCSI/WKKG/WINN/WWWY Radio Traffic Coordinator/Receptionist was selected as she, without question, excelled over the current WFIN/WKXA/WBUK Traffic Coordinator/Receptionist in performing the required work.

The WFIN-WKXA-WBUK Radio Traffic Coordinator/Receptionist was terminated on November 30, 2020 due to the reduction in staff and reassignment of duties.

The former Traffic Coordinator/Receptionist assumed her new role effective December 1, 2020.

No full recruitment campaigns were conducted due to the fact the position was filled by a former staff member who possessed the skill, experience and ability needed for this position.
